

word in edgewise;
wise and otherwise

By L. M. WISE

SLIDING DOWN HILL

A bill before the legislature legalizing the operation of a state lottery causes the conjecture whether or not our moral fiber as a people is not disintegrating very rapidly.

Years ago the idea held good that a lottery was perhaps the most pernicious form of gambling, in that the persons who could least afford to gamble were those who squandered their meager earnings in a chance that Dame Fortune would smile upon them. However, in recent years we have become alarmingly lax and the things that were once condemned without argument are not only tolerated but accepted in these days.

WHO IS TO BLAME?

Many wonder as to the cause for the letting down of our ideas and ideals. The war is usually blamed for changed modes of thinking and acceptance of without question or qualm of habits and practices that once were under the ban of decency.

Perhaps the war is partially to blame but not wholly so, in my opinion. It may have started out loose ways of thinking, but there are other and not deeply hidden things which are contributing factors. I want to be just in my judgments and endeavor to be fair, but I cannot escape the conclusion that our government, in itself, is in a large measure to blame.

FALSE PROPHETS

For years we were told what a handicap prohibition was to prosperity, how it infringed on our personal liberty and how repeal would promote temperance and improve our moral status. Of course the argument was the bunk and had about as much sincerity and foundation to it as the promise that the saloon would never be permitted to return. The main argument, however, was that the bootlegger was waging opulent at the expense of the government.

(Continued on page 2)

Radio Club To Aid Sheriff In Emergency Cases

The Richmond Radio Club—a group of amateur short wave station operators and short wave fans—last night volunteered their services to Sheriff John A. Miller in event of any emergency.

It was pointed out that during the Long Beach earthquake several years ago, amateur short wave stations played an important part in bringing news of the disaster to the outside world and helped to restore communications between the southern section of the state and the remainder of the state and nation.

The local Radio Club represents operators of 16 short-wave stations in this city. In an emergency, if telephone and telegraph service was disrupted, these "hams" would perform a valuable service in sending and receiving messages.

Last night's meeting was held at the city hall with Layne Cooper presiding. Technical subjects were discussed.

The next meeting will be held May 13 at the city hall.

Troop No. 12 Of Boy Scouts At Program Meeting

Troop No. 12 of Richmond Boy Scouts were entertained last night at a motion picture show and program presented at the Lincoln school auditorium.

The affair was arranged by boys of the troop under the direction of Harold Garrard, the Scoutmaster, and Charles M. Wolf, the committee.

Motion pictures were shown of Yosemite National Park by Jack Lee. Songs of magic were presented by Clarence Cain. Mrs. Elsie Bloomquist presented several readings and piano and saxophone selections were given by Dorothy Younglove and Marion Bryant. William Merrill, former local scout executive was present and addressed the boys. Merrill is now stationed at Bakersfield.

THE WEATHER

SAN FRANCISCO—Fair and moderately warm Saturday and Sunday; low humidity; southerly wind.
NORTHERN CALIFORNIA—Fair and warm today and tomorrow; fresh north wind off coast.

MIDDLE WEST IS SWEEPED BY TORNADOES

RECORD HERALD

VOL. XXVI, NO. 2491.

TELEPHONE 70

RICHMOND, CALIFORNIA.

SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 4, 1935.

TELEPHONE 71

PRICE 5c

COAST SHIP STRIKE THREATENED

STRIKERS IN WARNING TO LABOR HEAD

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—UP—The dormant coast tanker strike flared into new activity tonight when officers of the newly organized maritime federation of the Pacific telegraphed Secretary of Labor Perkins that a general marine strike was threatened.

Harry Lundberg, president and S. M. Kelly, secretary of the federation, warned Secretary Perkins of the seriousness of the tanker ship strike.

"The Pacific Coast oil tanker situation is extremely critical," Lundberg declared. "Unless steps are taken immediately to stop virtual lockout of union seamen by tanker operators a coastwide strike is imminent."

"The only solution to the dispute now remaining, is the appointment of an arbitration board with powers similar to the 1931 longshoremen's board appointed by Mr. Roosevelt. We urge you to appoint such a board at once."

Lundberg told Secretary Perkins he was notifying all locals of the 26 unions represented by the federation of his telegram and that "the entire federation membership is awaiting action by me as you suggested."

"Unrest acute, continuation of unsettled conditions on Pacific Coast makes general tieup inevitable. Resolution by maritime federation in convention pledged to give 100 percent support," Kelly warned in his telegram.

The message followed announcement today by tank ship operators that they considered the strike broken with sailing of the last ship tied up by the strike.

The program will be preceded by a reading "Crucified by Indifference" written and to be read by Mrs. A. Bloomquist.

By popular request, the choir orchestra of the Wesley Methodist church will repeat its Easter program Sunday at the church program.

This program is in the form of an Easter message, presented by song and most popular melodies of operas.

The program will be preceded by a reading "Crucified by Indifference" written and to be read by Mrs. A. Bloomquist.

Members of the Richmond city council, city officials and taxpayers are expected to turn out en masse at the meeting of the Richmond City Council on Monday evening and extend the right hand of fellowship to His Honor, Mayor George F. Imbach. The same right hand, which will be extended to His Honor will also be extended in hopes that Imbach will pass out a good brand of cigars.

For the mayor is now a proud grandfather. Yesterday morning at the Cottage Hospital his daughter, Mrs. William Clarenbach, gave birth to a bouncing baby boy.

Both mother and son are doing nicely. Dr. L. H. Fraser was the attending physician.

The Clarenbachs reside at 655 Thirtieth street. The father is a San Francisco business man.

Western Pacific Revenues Increase

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—UP—Operating revenues of the Western Pacific railroad for 1934 showed an increase of $1,424,599.79 over 1933, the annual report of the company showed today.

Net income from transportation operations, $1,267,421.92, increased $361,594.76 over 1933.

11 KILLED IN EASTERN GALES, COLD

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 3.—UP—A wedge of wintry cold sliced down into the Midwest tonight behind spring storms which brought tornadoes, rain, sleet and snow in which 11 persons were killed.

Floods in Indiana and Illinois followed the heavy rains in those states. Five of the fatalities occurred in northeastern Arkansas where the hurricane winds devastated houses and crops.

HEAVY RAINS

Downpours in Kentucky were accompanied by electrical displays. The rain softened the historic Churchill Downs race course, marred it for the Kentucky Derby tomorrow. The race probably will be run in the mud. Four persons were killed in Kentucky. Two others were killed in southern Arkansas.

Temperatures moved down into the 40's in western Nebraska today. Frost warnings were issued for tonight as far south as Kansas City.

The storm brought a blizzard to Wisconsin. Five inches of snow was reported at Lacrosse. Sleet disrupted some communications channels in Minnesota.

COLD WAVE

The cold wave was felt as far south as Amarillo where a temperature of 41 degrees was reported. The cold also enveloped the dust bowl of western Kansas and the Oklahoma Panhandle where the rain skipped.

Visibility of a mile was reported at Dodge City, Kan., as the north wind picked up the light dust and carried it along at an 18 mile an hour clip.

Sciot Pyramid Has Program, Dinner Meeting

"Scotch Night" was held by Richmond Pyramid of Scots last evening at the Richmond clubhouse with a record crowd in attendance. The affair was preceded by a 6:30 dinner and was followed by a program. The committee in charge included Scotty McLennan, Scotty McDowell and F. A. "Scotty" Leber. Allen J. Cundy presided over the business meeting of the organization at which time several coming events were planned.

On May 17 the Scots will be hosts to Bay Scout troop sponsored by the lodge. A court of honor will be held. On June 3 members will visit Harbor Lodge of Masons, F. H. Wilkins, a member of Richmond Scots and master of Harbor Lodge of Masons will be in charge. On the evening of June 7 a dinner meeting will be held for masters of the local blue lodges. Homer Patterson will be chairman of the evening, assisted by W. J. Smiley, Chief L. E. Jones and E. C. Lambrecht.

A joint picnic for Scots of the East Bay chapter will be held on June 9 in Alameda county. W. E. Lane heads the committee from Richmond Pyramid.

Plans are being discussed for an annual Sciot's barbecue and picnic to be held in East Shore Park some time in September.

Meeting Monday Of Harbor Lodge

Harbor Lodge of Masons, No. 562, will hold a stated meeting Monday evening at Masonic hall.

Following the business meeting, according to the master, F. H. Wilkins, there will be an entertainment, then refreshments.

Leading Rotarian

MR. AND Mrs. Robert L. Hill, above, as they arrived in New York on their way home to Columbia, Mo., after a trip abroad. Mr. Hill is president of the International Rotary Clubs and visited many units in foreign countries in his official capacity.

President W. A. Vickery Told Money To Head Vet Jam Broken

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Officers of the American Bankers Association told President Roosevelt today that the "private financing log jam is definitely broken."

R. S. Hecht, president, and Robert V. Fleming and Tom K. Smith, vice presidents, visited the White House to report on the recent meeting of the association's executive council.

"Money is plentiful and banks are anxious to get loans," Hecht said. "There was more private financing in April than in several years for that month. I think you can say that the private financing log jam is definitely broken."

CMTC Directors Urge Increase In Camp Rolls

Following information received from M. P. Lillenthal, civilian aide for the State of California, E. M. Downer, representative of the Citizens' Military Training Camps for Contra Costa county, issued the following statement:

"Increased appropriation for the Citizens' Military Training Camps places duty on our Association for full cooperation with the War Department for the procurement of enrollments. Every effort should be put forth for full publicity and applications for entrance to the camps should be at least 25 percent in excess of each camp's area quota. I urgently request that all local aides make report of their activities and of results in their localities. There are to be a number of applications considered in addition to those already received and it is hoped that all eligible applicants will receive favorable consideration."

Those desiring information relative to the 1935 C. M. T. C. should contact E. M. Downer at the Mechanics Bank, Richmond, or Ivan Hill, director of recreation, Richmond.

Program Enjoyed By Girls Group Of Junior High

An interesting program was presented yesterday at the meeting of the Girls' Association of the Longfellow school at the school auditorium. Miriam Gresham and Ethel Trent presided over the meeting.

The children's orchestra from Grant school, taught by Mrs. Alma Walstrom and directed by Betty Robbins, gave a group of selections. Miss Portia Wagener, a teacher in the Oakland University high school gave an interesting talk on leisure time.

Margaret Brown presented piano selections and Mrs. Irma Ledgewood's dramatic club presented a humorous kit, "Rubber Boots."

The program was sponsored by Miss Theresa Butscher and Miss Florence Patton.

Earhart's Solo Flight Delayed

MEXICO CITY, May 3.—UP—Amelia Earhart again postponed the take off of her solo non-stop flight to Newark, N. J., today after studying weather reports.

FIVE LOSE THEIR LIVES IN FLAMES

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., May 3.—UP—Fire started by children playing with matches near an open gasoline can swept through three buildings in the heart of the city's business section today, taking the lives of five persons.

All but two of the victims were children.

The buildings were four-story apartment houses with stores on the street level. Firemen spent nearly an hour bringing the blaze under control so that the bodies of those who perished could be recovered.

The dead: Edward and Mary Seftis and their two children, Joan, 3, and Rose Marie, and Shirley Elmore.

The gasoline can near which the youngsters were playing with matches exploded with a terrific detonation.

The flames spread so fast the residents of nearby buildings were ordered to evacuate.

Three other children were reported missing, police said.

The Elmore girl had been visiting another family in the building with her mother, Mrs. Clifford Elmore, who was rescued. Firemen, inspecting the ruins, said the victims had been trapped on the top floor. Two other persons, Mrs. Evelyn Mahoney, 35, and George Sherow, 53, were rescued. Sherow was burned severely.

Seven firemen were overcome by smoke and required emergency treatment. All available apparatus in the city was summoned.

The fire raged for nearly an hour before it was brought under control.

Gold Strike Is Luring Miners to Middle Buttes

LOS ANGELES, May 3.—UP—Prospectors, picks on their backs, were trekking toward the Middle Buttes mining country in back of the Mojave desert tonight, lured by the oldest and still the most sacrosanct lode in the west—reports of a gold strike.

Reports of the new strike sifted through mining camp circles after a group of prospectors who reportedly discovered rich ore had shipped 11 car loads to Los Angeles. The extent of the strike was not known.

Death Call Comes to Robert G. Stitt

The death call came to Robert G. Stitt late yesterday afternoon at his home at 550 Kearney street, El Cerrito, at the age of 78 years.

The remains are at the Ryan funeral home pending arrangements for the funeral.

Deceased was a native of Australia and had resided at El Cerrito for the past three years, coming from Bard, Calif.

Surviving him are two sons, Robert S. Stitt of Calexico and Sidney A. Stitt of El Cerrito.

Start Of New Job Relief Is Waited

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Growing heaps of plans and lengthening lines of callers in the offices of work relief officials told today of a 4,000 million dollar program that still awaited a presidential starting gun.

"Soon" was the unanimous prediction by chiefs of the three divisions set up by President Roosevelt to top his pyramid plans.

Princess

MISS Naomi Spalding Peeweke, 17, Nee Perce Indian girl and high school pupil, selected to preside over the traditional Ka-ooyit ceremonies in connection with the Lew'lon, Idaho, cherry blossom festival, May 10-11.

S. F. Inventor Is Slain By His Brother

DENVER, Colo., May 3.—UP—Joe Grisenti, 37, of 124 Loughborough street, San Francisco, an inventor, was shot to death by his brother, John Grisenti, in the brother's home here today.

Police said available information indicated that both men were mentally unbalanced at the time of the shooting.

After killing his brother, John Grisenti threatened to shoot his wife and four children, then changed his mind and fled from the house clad only in his underwear. Police captured him nearly a mile away, walking along the streets while snow brought by a late Spring storm swirled about him.

Grand Juror Is Victim Of Theft Of Circular Saw

Thieves are no respecters of high office. In fact, they have no respect for anybody any place at any time, ask Lawrence Olsen of Concord, if you want to verify that fact.

Mr. Olsen is a member of the county grand jury, which has been investigating this, that and the other thing. Now Mr. Olsen is buying a private investigation all of his own.

It seems that some time Thursday night somebody backed a truck up to Olsen's house near Concord and stole a 31½ inch circular saw that was Olsen's prized possession.

Brother Of Local Residents Called

Louis Berg, well known Richmond man and his sister, Mrs. Mary Reed, 128 Richmond Court, have been called to West Lake, Minn., by the death of their brother, Herbert Berg.

Deceased was a former Richmond man. He formerly was employed by P. F. Johnson & Son.

INCOME TAX BILL STARTS BITTER ROW

SACRAMENTO, May 3.—UP—A vigorous fight against any reduction in the proposed state income tax below that provided in the Chatters bill already passed by the Assembly was promised tonight by sponsors of the revenue measure.

"There will be no letting down in our efforts to obtain the final passage of the one-third personal income tax measure, already approved in the lower House by a vote of 70 to 5," said Assemblyman Ford A. Chatters, author of the bill.

Sponsors of the $25,000,000 income tax bill speeded up their campaign for final passage of the measure after the special joint steering committee tentatively approved an income tax rate of one-fourth rather than one-third the Federal levy.

Still opposed to consolidation measures, the Assembly defeated by a vote of 50 to 15 an amendment that would have permitted the consolidation of Superior courts by a majority vote of the counties involved.

Earlier in the day the assembly voted down a motion to withdraw from committee a bill assertedly designed to give Thomas Mooney another appeal for freedom by changing the habeas corpus law to include petitions based on charges of perjury committed during a trial.

McKenzie Pleads For The Life Of David Lamson

SAN JOSE, May 3.—UP—With alternate persuasiveness of a lecturer and appeal of an actor, Edw. V. McKenzie today completed two, and a half days final pleading for the life of David Lamson.

Using skills and a red-haired rubber doll, McKenzie drove home the point in his closing summation with infinite care, contending Lamson could not have killed his wife as the State charges.

At other times he sought to "reason" with the jury, multiplying examples and simplifying description as he asked them to apply "common sense to testimony in the case."

McKenzie indicated he will consume all of Monday and perhaps a portion of Tuesday in completing the final plea for Lamson's defense.

Grant Dads' Club Has Program At Local School

Grant school Dads' Club last evening entertained at a program and social held at the school auditorium.

The SERA orchestra and entertainers presented the program during the evening, which was followed by dancing. A lecture was also heard on telescopes.

The next meeting of the organization will be held on May 17 under the direction of C. V. Bradbury.

Funeral Planned For Famed Judge

LOS ANGELES, May 3.—Funeral services were being arranged today for former Supervisor Judge L. H. Valentine, 76, who died yesterday following an attack of influenza. Judge Valentine was born in El Dorado county, and graduated from the University of California.

He was serving the Superior bench when he was elected to the State Assembly and served as United States Attorney for Southern California from 1901 to 1906.

FOR THREAT MAY DEFEAT BONUS BILL

WASHINGTON, May 3.—UP—Harrassed party leaders hastily recessed the Senate late today as rebellious members threatened to defeat the administration's compromise bonus bill by adopting the Vinson substitute in the face of a certain White House veto.

SENATORS REBEL
Democratic ranks broke toward the close of a day of bitter debate during which the Senate again roared its refusal to approve war debt revisions and party chiefs were rebuffed for using threats of a presidential veto to influence legislation.

FIGHT MAY BE LOST
Chairman Pat Harrison, Dem., Miss., of the Senate finance committee in charge of the compromise bill, admitted tonight that his measure was lost unless it wins support before the upper House meets again on Monday.

At the same time, he emphasized that President Roosevelt would not accept any bonus proposal now pending in Congress other than his own and added: "I feel certain that the Senate would uphold the President's veto. This would mean simply that no action would be taken on the bonus bill in the 74th Congress which would benefit the soldiers."

OBJECTS TO THREATS
His remarks brought sharp criticism from Senator E. D. Smith, Dem., S. C., who challenged the propriety of Senate leaders holding a veto over the heads of the members.

Kidneys Must Clean Out Acids

The only way your body can clean out acids and poisons is by the kidneys. Kidneys are the filters of the body, and if they are not working properly, acids and poisons build up in the blood, causing various ailments. The only way to keep the kidneys clean is by taking a course of treatment with a kidney cleanser. This will help to remove the acids and poisons from the blood, and keep the kidneys working properly.

ELECT JOHN A. BELL

BELL
City Councilman

of Richmond

General Election

May 13, 1935

RE-ELECT

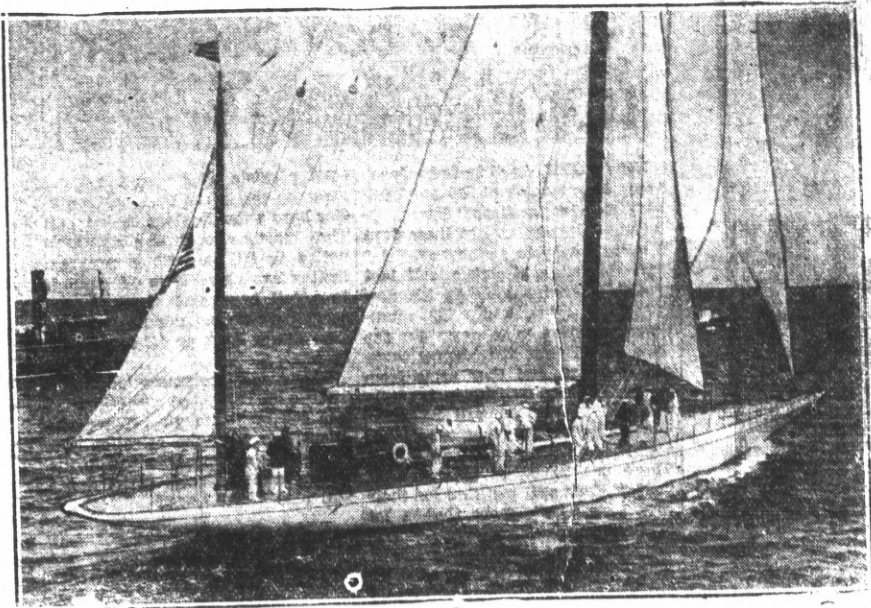

DR. A. B. HINKLEY

Hinkley
Incumbent
Candidate for City Councilman

General Election

May 13, 1935

Yankee Starts Abroad

OFF TO meet British yachts aboard this summer, here is Gerard B. Lambert's Yankee, taking on a west wind smack in the nose as she sailed out of Boston harbor. Whistles of steamships, freighters and other craft roared a salute to the trim craft as she started her long trans-Atlantic voyage under her own sail.

El Cerrito News

SANITARY BOARD HOLDS MEETING

A new ordinance covering and regulating sanitary conditions, disposal of garbage, rubbish, cleaning of stables, barns, and other buildings, was adopted Thursday evening by the El Cerrito Sanitary Board for the whole Sanitary District. The measure which is very comprehensive was drawn by Judge A. G. Thompson, attorney for the Board, and will clear up a cloudy situation by making the sanitary rules and regulations plain and unmistakable.

The city engineer was instructed to add to the S.E.R.A. project now being carried out in Richmond Annex, so that the expenditure would be approximately $2,000 and Ernest Bellis was instructed to get laborers started to work upon the project within the next few days. The S.E.R.A. advised the Board that it has a labor credit of approximately $500 at the present time.

Elmer Christensen, president of the board, announced that the dairy situation in Richmond Annex was being taken care of by the Richmond city council.

The Contra Costa county health officer advised the board through Secretary Sandwick that the Metcalf place at the foot of Van Fleet street has been ordered cleaned up and most of the animals disposed of by the first of May.

Plumbing Inspector Soldvin presented the bonds of several plumbers which were accepted by the board.

Sanitary Inspector Bellis reported the completion of the project at Cutting boulevard and San Pablo avenue, and the inauguration of a clean-up program in the Annex.

Several persons owning or operating dairies in the Annex were present to protest dairy regulations but were informed that the board has no jurisdiction over the matter as it is within the province of the Richmond city council.

RE-ELECT

WALTER J. JOHNSON

Johnson
Incumbent
Candidate for City Councilman

General Election

May 13, 1935

KING GEORGE IS AFTER HIS YACHTING CUP

LONDON, May 3.—King George's ambition is to win his own yacht cup, and he will not rest until he has secured it.

The King's Cup is the big event of the Royal Regatta at Cowes, Aug. 5 to 10, and regularly the King enters his veteran, 42-year-old yacht, Britannia, to sail it himself.

With the Britannia remodelled to bring her into line with modern yachts, the King is making a dead heat at the race and also attempting to make a comeback for Britannia this year.

VICTOR E. BELFILLS IS NEW DEPUTY SHERIFF
Victor E. Belfills is going to blossom out as a full fledged deputy sheriff one of these days. His papers are all made out awaiting his signature.

ACORNS BEAT PORTLAND IN FIRST CONTEST

By United Press

The Hollywood Stars, after ending the mid-week series in a tie for second place in league standings with San Francisco, tossed ahead of the Seals Friday as they did not fulfill their hopes, however, barely squeezed out an 8-7 win at Los Angeles.

Driving in two runs in the first inning and following with five more in quick succession in the second, the Stars coasted through the remaining innings to hold their lead in spite of two home runs by Joe DiMaggio of the San Francisco Giants.

DiMaggio, who caused Manager Lefty O'Doul and President Charles Graham no end of trouble last winter by holding out on his 1935 contract for weeks, hit the new "lively ball" over the fence in both the second and ninth innings.

"Wee Willie" Ludolph pitched the Oakland club to a 3-0 shut-out over the Portland Beavers, as the Oaks opened their new series at Portland.

Ludolph carried through the full nine innings, holding the Portland sluggers to four hits. Wade and Ulrich of Portland allowed 19 Oaks to land safely on first base.

San Francisco 7 10 1
Hollywood 8 14 3
Denmore, R. Cole, Sheehan & Woodall, Becker, Campbell; Rowler, Wells, Sautels.

Oakland 3 10 0
Portland 0 4 3
Ludolph and Raymond; Wade.

Digestible as milk itself!

... this cheese food with the deliciously mild Cheddar flavor

Let the family have this nutritious cheese food often... in sandwiches, in casseroles, and, melted, as a smooth sauce for eggs or sea food.

-a word in edgewise; wise and otherwise

By L. M. WISE

Associated Press Staff Writer

It is only an abbreviated step from light to gambling. Again, the old sock but take phrases are heard on every hand in justification of the establishment of a state lottery the revenue it will produce. I am not going to enter into a discussion of the morality of the men who propose that we advertise California as a gambler's paradise, but I will declare that the advocacy of such a proposition is an incontrovertible argument that their moral sense is badly twisted, warped and perverted.

Although I have never been labeled with that derisive cognomen of a "long-hair," I have yet to recall of being selected as a leader of any great moral crusade. I still adhere to the old-fashioned belief that a line of demarcation is easily drawn between those things which are "moral in fact" and those that tend to moral and spiritual uplift. In the latter category I cannot include liquor and gambling. If these things can be a hindrance to a man's life, why not a woman's? Why not a child's? Why not a nation's? We can better bear the taxation of a man's life, and it is time to call a halt to our decadence which is synonymous with moral degradation.

LET TO BALT
Our personal liberties today are too broad for our well-being, and it is time to call a halt to our decadence which is synonymous with moral degradation.

NEW TRIAL ASKED By Jepson In Damage Suit

MARTINEZ, May 3.—Upon filing of notice of intention to move for a new trial on behalf of the defendant Paul Jepson, a ten day stay of execution today was ordered by Superior Judge Anthony Caminetti, Jr., in the $500,000 automobile collision injury suit of William J. Dodge against Paul Jepson of Martinez and Lewis J. Boldt.

A jury returned a judgment of $3,000 against both defendants.

ACHING, WEARY feet relieved

Now—before your nerves snap under the strain—is the time to ease those aching, weary feet, crooked toes, weak, turning ankles, corns, callouses, bunions.

Dr. Scholl's Foot Comfort Appliances

can relieve you of foot troubles as they have thousands of other sufferers. We have these famous devices here at the store. Our foot comfort demonstrator will gladly show what they can do for you.

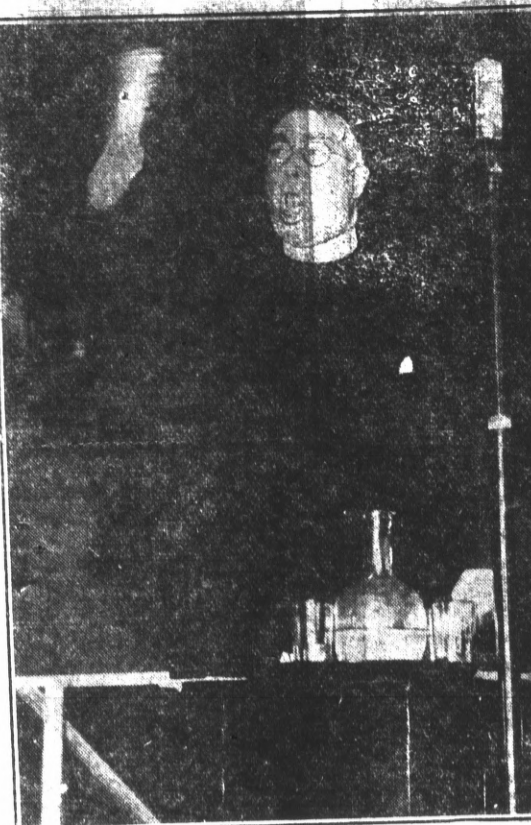

Don't wish you had come in—be glad you did

B. B. Comfort Shoe Store

Arch supports from $1 up

720 Macdonald Ave.

in Dramatic Pose

THE REV. Charles E. Coughlin, aggressive radio priest, as he addressed an audience of about 15,000 in Detroit in a drive to make his National Union for Social Justice an effective instrument for changing the present social, economic and financial structure of the country. He planned to organize hundreds of chapters of his Union.

Wednesday night, Today Attorney James E. Hoy of Martinez, representing Jepson gave notice of intention to move for a new trial.

Parent Asking $15,000 Damages For Child Injury

STOCKTON, May 3.—The third trial of the death suit filed by Joseph Ricardo of Crockett against the Crockett grammar school district was completed yesterday morning in the court of Superior Judge Anthony Caminetti, Jr., at Stockton and testimony of witnesses was heard.

Camino charged that his 10-year-old daughter, Helen, died from heat of blood on November 2, 1929, after she received an artery in one arm during a game of hide-out at the school.

The jury in the matter included: At Stockton, Hastings, Selby, David Robertson, Richmond; Mrs. Joseph C. Connell, Richmond; Mrs. Roscoe Medfitt, Richmond; Mrs. Anna Litten, Redwood Canyon; Antonio Scotti, Richmond; Lawrence Thel, Richmond; Mrs. Bertha Martin, Richmond; Mrs. Anna Folger, Richmond; Emmet C. Grubben, Pittsburg; and Mrs. Daisy D. Bliss, Richmond.

First trial of the case resulted in a declaration of a verdict for the school district was given by a verdict was ordered by the court.

Warehouse Strike At Stockton Settled

STOCKTON, May 3.—Settlement of a strike of 300 warehouse workers was announced here today.

Operators were reported to have signed a collective bargaining agreement with representatives of the union.

Wage increases and extra time for work on recognized holidays and over time were provided in the agreement.

DEATH TOLL IN P. I. REVOLT IS REPORTED AT 61

MANILA (Saturday) May 3.—UP—Authorities probed swiftly today into secrets of the Sakdalista party as military forces reported the sudden uprising of the group completely smashed.

Friday night passed without reported incidents, although new demonstrations had been expected. Constabulary headquarters reported incidents, although new demonstrations had been expected.

61 KILLED
Constabulary headquarters reported that a total of 61 members of the party had been killed in clashes at Santa Rosa, Cabuyao, San Ildefonso and other towns. The most serious engagement was at Cabuyao, where 52 Sakdalistas were killed.

No accurate estimates of the number of wounded were available.

Reliable sources said that more than 200 persons, including several purported leaders of the Sakdalista movement, were under arrest.

HEAVY POLICE GUARD
Heavy police and constabulary patrols remained in the Tondo and Sampaloc sections of Manila, police districts where thousands of militant peasants live. It had been feared that an outbreak might take place in the two sections last night.

Statements obtained from Sakdalista leaders indicated that many had been in touch with Benigno Ramos, exiled leader of the group, in Japan, the constabulary reported. Earlier the Department of Justice had announced would seek extradition of Ramos from Japan to face charges of sedition and treason.

REVOLT CAUSE
The Sakdalista revolt was believed to have resulted primarily from recent action of the Laguna provincial board in ousting Sakdalista members from the San Rosa municipal council, replacing them with non-Sakdalistas. The act destroyed a Sakdalista majority which was obtained in San Rosa.

Further complicating this act was a decree of the Laguna provincial board which apparently ousted the Sakdalistas from a cabaret in Santa Rosa municipal council ordered all cabarets permanently closed. The provincial board disapproved the order, and instructed the municipal board to rescind its action. The provincial board, based on recommendation on the fact that cabarets are an important source of municipal revenue.

Albert's MAY Clearance Dresses

$3.88 $5.88

If you are looking for Bargains. Well, here are two of them, smart Spring and early summer styles that will provide you with a perfect wardrobe of dresses at a saving.

Silk Hose Special 59c

All colors. Another Scotch, fine quality Hose that are so near perfect in Clifton and Service weight that you'll want to buy several pairs.

Special! KOTEX

WONDERSOFT KOTEX Sanitary Napkins

1. WILL NOT CHABE
2. CANNOT TWIST
3. STAYS SOFT
Package of 12, Regular or Super.

3 for 51c

Money back if not satisfied

Women say there just isn't any other sanitary pad like Kotex! If you don't agree, simply return your sales slip and your money will be refunded.

RADIO

7 to 8 A. M.
 KYA—Musical Club.
 KPO—The Honeycreepers, Vass.
 Family Songs; Sextet; Song.
 KGO—Studio; International Week.
 KRCR—Broadway with Bob.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

8 to 9 A. M.
 KYA—Christian Science Reading.
 KPO—Studio; Music; News.
 KGO—Studio; Music; News.
 KRCR—Studio; Music; News.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

9 to 10 A. M.
 KYA—Studio; Music; News.
 KPO—Studio; Music; News.
 KGO—Studio; Music; News.
 KRCR—Studio; Music; News.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

10 to 11 A. M.
 KYA—Studio; Music; News.
 KPO—Studio; Music; News.
 KGO—Studio; Music; News.
 KRCR—Studio; Music; News.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

11 A. M. to 12 Noon
 KYA—Studio; Music; News.
 KPO—Studio; Music; News.
 KGO—Studio; Music; News.
 KRCR—Studio; Music; News.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

12 Noon to 1 P. M.
 KYA—Studio; Music; News.
 KPO—Studio; Music; News.
 KGO—Studio; Music; News.
 KRCR—Studio; Music; News.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

1 to 2 P. M.
 KYA—Studio; Music; News.
 KPO—Studio; Music; News.
 KGO—Studio; Music; News.
 KRCR—Studio; Music; News.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

2 to 3 P. M.
 KYA—Studio; Music; News.
 KPO—Studio; Music; News.
 KGO—Studio; Music; News.
 KRCR—Studio; Music; News.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

3 to 4 P. M.
 KYA—Studio; Music; News.
 KPO—Studio; Music; News.
 KGO—Studio; Music; News.
 KRCR—Studio; Music; News.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

4 to 5 P. M.
 KYA—Studio; Music; News.
 KPO—Studio; Music; News.
 KGO—Studio; Music; News.
 KRCR—Studio; Music; News.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

5 to 6 P. M.
 KYA—Studio; Music; News.
 KPO—Studio; Music; News.
 KGO—Studio; Music; News.
 KRCR—Studio; Music; News.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

6 to 7 P. M.
 KYA—Studio; Music; News.
 KPO—Studio; Music; News.
 KGO—Studio; Music; News.
 KRCR—Studio; Music; News.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

7 to 8 P. M.
 KYA—Studio; Music; News.
 KPO—Studio; Music; News.
 KGO—Studio; Music; News.
 KRCR—Studio; Music; News.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

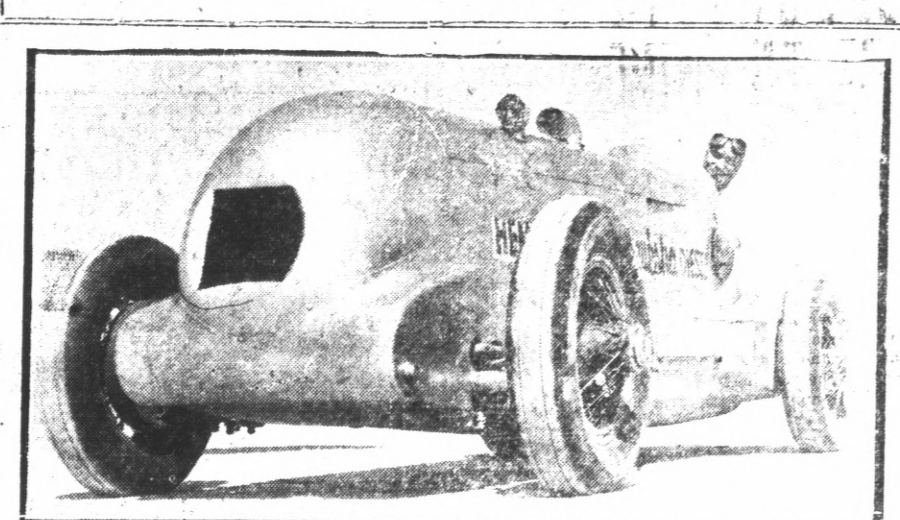

8 to 9 P. M.
 KYA—Studio; Music; News.
 KPO—Studio; Music; News.
 KGO—Studio; Music; News.
 KRCR—Studio; Music; News.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

9 to 10 P. M.
 KYA—Studio; Music; News.
 KPO—Studio; Music; News.
 KGO—Studio; Music; News.
 KRCR—Studio; Music; News.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

10 to 11 P. M.
 KYA—Studio; Music; News.
 KPO—Studio; Music; News.
 KGO—Studio; Music; News.
 KRCR—Studio; Music; News.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

11 to 12 P. M.
 KYA—Studio; Music; News.
 KPO—Studio; Music; News.
 KGO—Studio; Music; News.
 KRCR—Studio; Music; News.
 KTAH—Studio; Music; News.
 KJLB—Studio; Music; News.

Seeks New Diesel Record

"STUBBY" Stubbelfield, noted radio race driver, and the Diesel-powered car with which he is attempting to set a new world record at Mirador Dry Lake on the Mojave Desert.

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY GO ROUND

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public. The British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public.

It is a subject of intense interest to the American public. The British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public. It is a subject of intense interest to the American public.

For months, despite the fact that the British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public. The British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public.

It is a subject of intense interest to the American public. The British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public. It is a subject of intense interest to the American public.

For months, despite the fact that the British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public. The British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public.

It is a subject of intense interest to the American public. The British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public. It is a subject of intense interest to the American public.

For months, despite the fact that the British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public. The British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public.

It is a subject of intense interest to the American public. The British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public. It is a subject of intense interest to the American public.

For months, despite the fact that the British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public. The British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public.

It is a subject of intense interest to the American public. The British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public. It is a subject of intense interest to the American public.

For months, despite the fact that the British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public. The British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public.

It is a subject of intense interest to the American public. The British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public. It is a subject of intense interest to the American public.

For months, despite the fact that the British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public. The British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public.

It is a subject of intense interest to the American public. The British position in the French campaign in Europe is a subject of intense interest to the American public. It is a subject of intense interest to the American public.

NEW YORK INSIDE OUT By DON O'MALLEY

NEW YORK, April 3.—John Jacob Astor, Jr., and his wife, Mrs. Astor, are the only couple in the city who have a private chauffeur. They are the only couple in the city who have a private chauffeur.

There was a young lady named Astor, who was the only lady in the city who had a private chauffeur. She was the only lady in the city who had a private chauffeur.

Which shows how the influence of politics is affecting even the most private of lives. It shows how the influence of politics is affecting even the most private of lives.

Hollywood Film Shop. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

Each chauffeur is familiar with all of the studio cars, from the dozen elaborate limousines to the eight small runabouts. They are able to drive any of the cars that occupy the large studio garage.

There never has been an accident to the cars driven by any of these studio chauffeurs. Marlene Dietrich, Bette Davis, Mae West, Gary Cooper and Claudette Colbert among others, can all testify to the chauffeurs' skill and dexterity.

Which shows how the influence of politics is affecting even the most private of lives. It shows how the influence of politics is affecting even the most private of lives.

Hollywood Film Shop. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film. It is a shop that sells all the latest in Hollywood film.

OAKLAND
 FRI. 10 SAT. 11 SUN. 12
 2 Shows Daily 2 P. M. 8 P. M.
 4TH & SAN PABLO AVE.
ALG. BARNES WILD ANIMAL CIRCUS
 WOULD LARGEST TRAVELING ZOO
 INTERNATIONAL ARENA STARS
 SUPER HORSES
 200 BIG ACTS
 12 ACRES TENT
 Reserved and Admission Tickets
 On Sale Circus Days at SHERMAN CLAY & CO.
 H. C. CAPWELL
 20th & Broadway

Richmond Theater
 TODAY
 Joan Bennett in
 THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS
 Also
 WEST OF JUSTICE
 Serial Continuous Show

HOW IT BEGAN
 By Paul F. Berdanier
CROCODILE TEARS
 THE ANCIENTS BELIEVED THAT CROCODILES WEPT LIKE DISTRESSED HUMANS TO LURE VICTIMS WITHIN THEIR REACH, SO ANYONE CRYING IN PRETENDED GRIEF WAS SAID TO SHED "CROCODILE TEARS."

TRASH
 ORIGINALLY "TRASH" WAS CLIPPINGS OF TREES AND HEDGES TOO FINE FOR FIREWOOD AND USED TO STUFF FAGGOTS TO MAKE THEM LOOK LARGER, SO THE WORD CAME TO MEAN ANYTHING INFERIOR.

Injector
 RAZOR
 $150 This price includes injector with 20 blades.
 Lots of BLADES
 Lots of blades come with the new Schick Injector Razor. The injector which you get with the razor comes loaded with 20 unsharpened blades. There's no unwrapping of paper. You merely insert injector and pull. Push. And what a shave you get. Smooth, quick, and so comfortable.
 MAGAZINE REPLICATING RAZOR CO.
 30 Park Avenue, New York, N. Y.
 Harold F. Richter & Co., Inc., 40 E. 5th St., N. Y.

WALLACE BEERY WEST POINT
 Hand-boiled... loveable... Wallace Beery in NOW a star-studded saga of the laughs... loves and glory of our flying ace!
 8.30 SULLIVAN ROBERT YOUNG LEMMY STONE JAY HANCOCK
 MICKEY MOUSE
 "Two-Ton Mickey"
 EL BRENDAL
 Comedy
 "What, No Tea?"

Phone RICHMOND 584
FOX
 LAST DAY... First Night Show at 6:00 P. M.
 Thrill... Romance
KAY FRANCIS GEORGE BRENT WARREN WILLIAM
LIVING VELVET
 ALL SEAS 25¢ (EXCEPT 10¢)
WALTER C. KELLY
 (The Vienna Judge)
RICHARD CROMWELL ANDY CLYDE

TOMORROW
 WALLACE BEERY
Beery West Point
 Hand-boiled... loveable... Wallace Beery in NOW a star-studded saga of the laughs... loves and glory of our flying ace!
 8.30 SULLIVAN ROBERT YOUNG LEMMY STONE JAY HANCOCK
 MICKEY MOUSE
 "Two-Ton Mickey"
 EL BRENDAL
 Comedy
 "What, No Tea?"

BRIDE BY LEGACY
 By R. G. MONTGOMERY
 CHAPTER XXXIII
 CARMIE looked dejected as she glanced round at Mary. She smiled coolly.

"Did you have a good time last night?" Mary asked evenly. She walked over and sat down beside Carmie.
 "It is my own business if I want to step out," Carmie flared.
 "It is my business when you step out with my husband," Mary said quietly. "I think we should have an understanding right now. I know this whole thing is different after all. Jarred is not profiting by this marriage, and he must live up to his part of the bargain which is to keep up appearances for five years."
 "That's up to him—and you," Carmie said, and tossed her head. "You will have to leave here and stay away," Mary said, and her eyes flashed angrily. Carmie's insolence was starting her temper.
 "Oh, I think I'll stay," Jarred liked to have me around," Carmie smiled in open defiance.
 "IN THAT case, I may have to take steps," Mary said evenly. "Go ahead!" Carmie was flushed with anger now. "You were fool enough to marry him."
 "The deal is not closed," Mary said.
 "What do you mean?" asked Carmie. Jarred had told her that he had signed the necessary papers and was now master of the house.
 "He was too drunk to sign anything," said Mary. "Mr. Sloan left with the papers unsigned. Today is Sunday, so you and Jarred will have a whole day to think things over."
 "How about the kids?" Carmie demanded. She was falling back upon her trump card.
 "Eager to have me have the marriage annulled and let the money go to charity?" Carmie leaned back and thought terrible things about the dependable Jarred. She was in a hole and knew it. Worst of all, she was about to have to back down—at least, for the time being.
 "Well," was all she could say. "Well."
 "Looks like I might have been called in on this meeting," Jarred said from the door. Neither girl knew he had been standing there for how long.
 "You are included," Mary said, without looking around.
 JARRED came in and walked to the bookshelf where he kept his flask. He poured himself a stiff drink. Mary gave Carmie a level look.
 "If he keeps that up, we will not have to wait five years," she said.
 "Yes? You'd be pleased, I suppose," Jarred said, and tossed off the drink.
 "Of all the nit-witted, brainless fools you are the top man!" Jarred groaned and passed his hand over his eyes.
 "I'd have sworn I signed something," he said contritely.
 "You signed the marriage certificate and that was all!" Carmie snapped. "You fool!"
 Jarred got to his feet. "I'll fix it up," he said hurriedly. "I'll make that dame come through and like it."
 Carmie stepped in front of him. "What are you going to do?" she demanded.
 "Never mind. She can't put anything like that over on me. She'll do as I say or I'll know the reason why!" Jarred was shaking with anger.
 "Sit down, you idiot. Listen to me. If you get rough with that girl, you'll lose everything. She will have the marriage annulled. I know a woman with sand when I see one."
 Jarred sank back into his chair. "Well, what do you suggest, then?" he mumbled.
 "You're simply not to make up with her. I'll clear out and before I go, we will stage a good fight. You play up to her and cut the drink. Play a safer hand for a while, look."
 Jarred realized that she was right, that he would have to knuckle under.
 "Okay," he said rising. "Come on and stage your fight."
 She slapped him a cutting blow across the face. Jarred staggered back and snarled with pain.
 "You—you!" he lunged at her.
 "Make it sound real!" Carmie hissed as she kicked open the library door.
 (To be continued)

SATURDAY
 LINE OF
 OF MIP HAVE Line offi
 ter, Order were hosti evening at held at the More the the affair the local e neighborin
 Each line o neighboring Each line from the
 A short organization
 day. Metro
 Worthy. Pa
 presiding. initiation o be held at After the group was gram. Ede
 eral vocal
 Spate gave
 In the b beautifully with a "de delicious i novel idea decorating were attri
 90s and e
 Line offi
 tiful gift and worth banquet. E
 ceived a g Hosts a evening wa sociate m a sociate conductes sociate co
 Mrs. H large an charge o
 AUXILI
 DEWEY HAS M Preparat were, d the Auxil camp of can War Memorial
 Poulson in Several itiated in welcomed Prepara
 Berkeley be held month. Pl for the P be held u Auxiliary
 Mrs. Fu
 Parnell a named on mitte fou
 WE 10
 Se fo
 Try our ice. Fl ing app
 d, 1
 Out of ish shir addition
 Ric
 526 R
 C Bis
 L

Clubs Lodges Society

LINE OFFICERS OF MIRAMAR HAVE PARTY

Line officers of Miramar Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, were hosts and hostesses last evening at a delightful program held at the Masonic hall.

More than 300 guests attended the affair including members of the local chapter and guests from neighboring Eastern Star lodges. Each line officer had a guest from the Eastbay Association.

A short business meeting of the organization was held with Worthy Matron Janet Blome and Worthy Patron J. C. Hitchcock presiding. Plans were made for initiation of candidates which will be held at the next meeting.

After the business meeting the group was entertained at a program. Edgar Dale presented several vocal selections and Homer Spate gave a humorous reading.

In the banquet room, which was beautifully decorated in keeping with a "long, long ago" motif, a delicious repast was served. Many novel ideas were incorporated in decorating the room. The ladies were attired in dresses of the gay 50s and even earlier.

Line officers presented a beautiful gift to the worthy matron and worthy patron during the banquet. Each line officer also received a gift.

Hosts and hostesses for the evening were Irma Griswold, associate matron; James Griswold, associate patron; Blossom Rice, conductress and Nellie Scott, associate conductress.

Mrs. Ida McDowell headed the large and able committee in charge of the banquet.

AUXILIARY TO DEWEY CAMP HAS MEETING

Preparations for coming events were discussed last night when the Auxiliary to Admiral Dewey Camp of United Spanish American War Veterans convened at Memorial hall with Mrs. Bessie Poulsen in charge.

Several new candidates were initiated into the order and were welcomed as new members.

Preparations were made for the Berkeley convention, which will be held the latter part of the month. Plans were also discussed for the water memorial rites to be held under the direction of the Auxiliary on May 26.

Mrs. Fanny Graham, Mrs. Dora Parnell and Corinne Storey were named on the refreshments committee for the next meeting.

Promoted

MARTIN W. CLEMENT, 54, of Haverford, Pa., who succeeds General W. W. Atterbury as president of the Pennsylvania railroad. Born in Cunbury, Pa., he was educated at Trinity college and entered the employ of the railroad as a rodman in the engineering department.

MISSOURI UNION ENTERTAINED AT LUNCHEON

Members of the Union Club yesterday enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. Martha Evans at her cafe on San Pablo avenue.

A delicious luncheon was served during the afternoon and whist games were played and a social enjoyed. Mrs. O. E. Randolph presided over the meeting.

It was announced that next month the group will enjoy a picnic outing at the Shady Glen grounds near Martinez. Mrs. E. Wood, of Martinez will be the hostess.

CIRCLE NO. 2 WESLEY AID HAS ELECTION

Mrs. Merle Dickinson was re-elected chairman of Circle No. 2 of the Wesley Ladies Aid Society yesterday at a meeting held at the church parlors.

Other officers re-elected during the session were Mrs. C. Conn, vice chairman; Mrs. Grace Craig, treasurer and Mrs. W. A. Manrow, secretary.

Annual reports were heard from committee members and chairman. Plans for future events were discussed.

Circle No. 2 will play an active part in the dinner which will be served by the General Ladies Aid on the night of May 22.

WE DO DAMP WASH 16 LBS. FOR 49c

8c for each additional lb.

Try our family dry wash service. Flat pieces ironed. Wearing apparel dried, lb. 8c

Out of this service we will finish shirts for only 12c additional

Richmond Steam Laundry

526 Ripley Phone 612

HUNT SCHOOL OF PIANOFORTE

519 Sixth Street

Mrs. Mary Jo Hunt, director.

Fall Registrations are now open

Certificates and diplomas

Courses Fully Accredited

Rates upon application

Charges are Moderate

It is well to remember that a beautiful mortuary does not mean high prices, as this firm proves. With all the refinements and comforts to be found here, charges are never higher than the smallest incomes can easily afford. By including everything in one plainly marked price, we have made it possible for every family to make an appropriate selection without financial hardship.

WILSON & KRATZER, Mortuary
Bissell at Seventh Street Phone Richmond 113
RICHMOND
Lily Attendant Ambulance Service

DEMOCRATIC WOMEN HAVE WHIST PARTY

A very large crowd attended the whist party held last evening by the Richmond Chapter of the Women's National Democratic Club.

The affair was held at the Richmond hall. Many prizes were awarded.

Mrs. Florence Shubert headed the committee in charge of the affair.

Prize winners at the affair were: Frank Lambie, door prize; Bess Carbes, Mrs. M. Guidi, Mrs. E. Timmons, Claire Schmidt, Mrs. Jack McGrath, Fred J. Weber, Mary McCann, Frank Lambie, Jennie Davis, Mrs. A. Carson, Mary Olegrie, Manie Ferrari, Dave Kehler, Mrs. A. Peters, P. H. Beck, Mrs. J. Reardon, Frank Weber, Claire Burford, Pete Mohamed, Helen Ulroch, J. Riordan, Frederick Weber, Audrey Valentine, L. Egger, M. Loxon and Mrs. J. Due.

Prizes were donated by J. A. Bell, Claire Schmidt, Walter Johnson, Dr. A. B. Hinkley and Lud Johnson, who seek election at the May 13 general election.

Mrs. Shubert, the chairman of the affair, extended her thanks to all who assisted in making the whist a big success.

VERA CHILDS IS MARRIED AT S. F. CHURCH

Miss Vera Jean Childs, well-known local girl, yesterday became the bride of James Stuchlik, of San Francisco, at a quiet ceremony performed last Sunday at the San Francisco First Methodist church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Childs and Albert Childs of Richmond and has made her home here most of her life. She is a graduate of the local schools and since graduation has been employed in San Francisco.

Stridhorst is a caterer, and is also employed in San Francisco. Their only attendants at the wedding were Mrs. Childs and Bert and Fred Childs mother and brothers.

The wedding ceremony was solemnized in an afternoon frock of blue with white hat and accessories and wore a corsage of orchids and baby roses.

The happy couple will make their home in San Francisco for the present.

LOCAL LODGE OF REBEKAHS HAS SESSION

First nomination of officers was held last night when the Richmond Lodge of Rebekahs held its meeting at the Odd Fellows hall. Mrs. Edith Faust, the noble grand presided.

Second nomination will be held at the next meeting, May 17 and election will be held at the following meeting.

Initiation of candidates will be held by the organization on June 7, it was announced. Drill in preparation for this event was held following the business meeting.

On May 12 the lodge will attend a boat ride and tour of the bay bridges to be held for Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by Ida Mae Ross and her committee.

COLONISTS ARE ENJOYING OCEAN TRIP

ABOARD THE TRANSPORT ST. MICHEL, today as it sailed from San Francisco on its trip to the Hawaiian Islands, the colonists were enjoying the trip.

The transport, which is a converted freighter, is carrying 300 CCC workers also making the trip northward.

Boarding, which began at 10 a.m., was a short process, were featured with special events for the colonists.

The paper also contained several stories regarding international sports events. The transport is being broadcast to all navy and army vessels at sea.

The St. Michel's white sides glowed under brilliant sunshine, and today as the weather continued along the route, the Pacific remained extraordinarily calm, making the passage one of gratifying ease and smoothness to the colonists.

The second day of the six day voyage from San Francisco to Seattle, the colonists were enjoying the trip.

The colonists were enjoying the trip, and the weather was calm.

San Francisco May Be Site Of Bourbon Meeting

WASHINGTON, May 3.—A number of influential Democrats were represented today in an authoritative quarter as favoring giving San Francisco the 1936 party convention.

There was said to be a desire to do something that would tend to overcome the Democratic loss of the California governorship last year when Upton Sinclair captured the Democratic nomination.

STEADY WOMEN IN PLANS FOR DINNER MEET

The first meeting under the new officers was held by the Steady Women's Society yesterday afternoon at the church parlors under the direction of Mrs. Ethel Gaudry, the newly installed president.

The meeting was opened at 10 o'clock in morning and much sewing was accomplished. At noon a delicious luncheon was served.

At the business meeting a number of important events were discussed. Announcement was made that the mothers' and daughters' banquet will be held on the evening of May 17, instead of May 19. Mrs. A. R. Lupton will be chairman. An interesting program has been arranged for the evening.

Another outstanding event for the season will be a luncheon to be held by the ladies of the church on the afternoon of May 27. Mrs. Charles Dodge will be in charge.

BIRTHDAY OF LOCAL BOY IS OBSERVED

The fifth birthday of little Willie Finck was celebrated at a jolly party held at his home, 706 Twenty-first street this week. Willie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Finck.

Youthful guests present were Ernest John, Stanley Alcott, Ralph and Myrtle Spies, Don Southcott, Barbara Dexter, Edna Graef, Dawn Hope Gilbert, James Bryan, Stanley Sweetman and Miriam Davis.

Also the following adults: Mesdames Floyd Gilbert, Lloyd Spies, C. H. Dexter, L. Southcott, J. A. Bryan and W. J. Finck; Miss Emma Finck and A. M. Cornell, grand father of the little host.

The birthday cake was cut and the party was a success.

The party was a success and the birthday boy was very happy.

THE YOUNG IDEAR By Opdyke

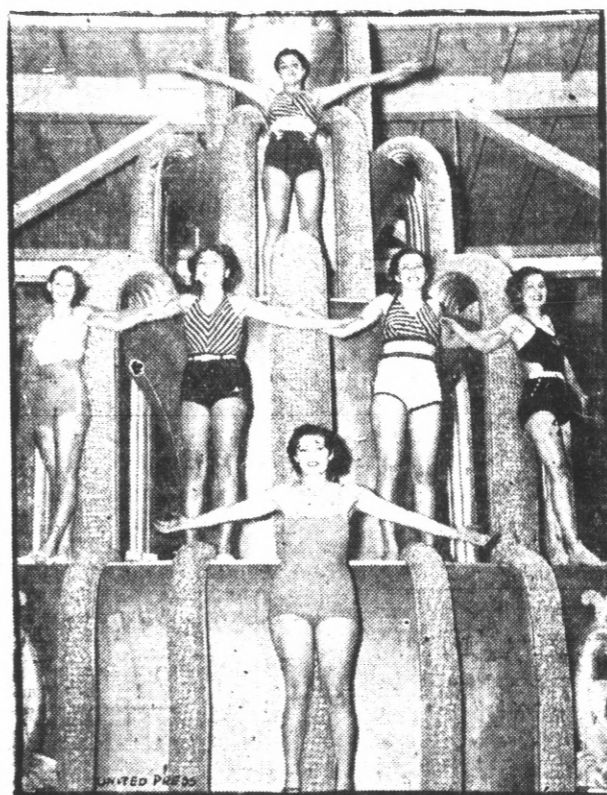

Do you HAVE to give him that many to grow on?

Editors In Session

MEN WHO direct leading newspapers of the country met in Washington at the 13th annual convention of the American Society of Newspaper Editors. In this group, left to right, are: M. W. Bingay, Detroit Free Press; Casper S. Yost, St. Louis Globe Democrat; W. G. Vorne, Cleveland Plain Dealer and K. C. Hogate, Wall Street Journal.

Human Fountain

THIS COLORFUL effect was gained when pretty San Diego girls posed with the great fountain of light being erected in the Palace of Foods and Beverages, where it is part of the display of a great national organization. With its varicolored lights flowing through millions of glass facets, it dominates the many spectacular displays of the building.

Daugherty After Brokerage Firms

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—UP—Commissioner Edward M. Daugherty will appear Monday before Judge Lytle T. Jack to argue right of his office to push an investigation of four San Francisco brokerage houses.

Companies involved in the investigation, in addition to Waxman and Daugherty, were Standard Security, Michael Arkanian and Company, and Holland and Company.

It was charged that "under cover" operation of these concerns were illegal. High pressure salesmanship methods were used to force purchase of stocks whose values were misrepresented in telephone and telegraph advices, it was charged.

Companies involved in the investigation, in addition to Waxman and Daugherty, were Standard Security, Michael Arkanian and Company, and Holland and Company.

Neither winter storms nor summer heat can effect the tranquility and serenity of Mausoleum burial.

Sunset Mausoleum WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

Just don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Repeat a substitute. 25c at drug stores. ©1931 C. M. Co.

MR. ROOSEVELT SCORES C OF C FOR ITS STAND

WASHINGTON, May 3.—UP—President Roosevelt, in vigorous language, said today that in too many cases so-called business organizations misrepresented the business men they claimed to speak for.

His statement was interpreted as a reply to the criticism of the United States Chamber of Commerce directed at the new deal program.

SCORES C. OF C. Weighing his words carefully, Mr. Roosevelt told a room full of newspaper correspondents at his press conference today that he did not believe that a single speech delivered at the convention of the organization that ended its sessions here yesterday contained any mention of the human side of the picture.

Mr. Roosevelt's comment was in reply to a question as to the nature of his conference yesterday with the business advisory council of the Department of Commerce, which called on him to endorse NRA extension and the social security program.

IRONIC GESTURE The President replied that all agreed with the fundamental principles involved and that he informed his callers he was convinced there were too many cases of so-called business organizations which misrepresented the aims of a good many business men.

Referring to the recent meeting here, the President remarked that there were differing generalities and some passing reference about having to see old people starve, ironically he added that this was scarcely a constructive contribution.

While business organizations claim to be permitted to do things themselves, Mr. Roosevelt said, practice has shown that unless there is a check-up by city, state or federal authorities, there always are a certain number of people who carelessly or maliciously fail to live up to the law.

He recalled that in 1912, when he was a state Senator from Dutchess county in the New York legislature, objections to well meaning laws came not from business itself but from the chamber of commerce and the merchants association, life charged they deliberately misrepresented the membership.

Eccles Denial Of Hecht Charges Of New Banking Law

WASHINGTON, May 3.—UP—The banking bill before Congress is "designed to insert in the banking law the broad constitutional authority of Congress over money and policy and to give to the Federal reserve system a clear cut definition of its major purposes for which it shall use the powers delegated to it by Congress," M. S. Eccles, governor of the Federal reserve board said tonight.

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of correspondence as President E. S. Hecht of the American Bankers Association in which the reserve board had denied the business men's charge that the bill would "take away the powers of the banks."

Eccles made public an exchange of

OUR-DAILY-MAGAZINE-PAGE

YOUR GOOD HEALTH

By C. N. CHRISMAN, M.D.

Only Really Effective Way of Treating Diphtheria Is By Toxin, Preferably Before Infection

ALL persons, whose experience or reading has given them the picture of diphtheria as the development of a deadly anti-toxin, will appreciate the great strides that have been made in its prevention and treatment.

Before the use of anti-toxin became general the death rate varied from twenty to thirty to forty or even sixty per cent of those contracting the disease. Now the death rate is from three to five per cent, and that includes those cases not recognized until too late for anti-toxin to do any good. There are also those who did not receive it because of objections of parents or the inability to obtain it.

With this record extending over a period of thirty years, and steadily improving, it would appear that no person could be so ignorant or contrary, that they would not recognize its efficiency. It has been abundant proof that a sufficient dose of anti-toxin, given within the first twenty-four hours after the beginning of the disease, is virtually a cure. If not given within this six hours, success is less sure and if not given for three or four days it is almost useless in preventing heart and nerve damage.

It is easily seen that prompt diagnosis and treatment are necessary, but the disease is often so mild at first that it may not be even suspected and our first knowledge of the presence of the disease is when paralysis of the throat or failure of the heart occurs.

Fortunately, we have learned a method by which it can be determined whether a child will develop the disease if exposed to diphtheria. This is the Schick test, which consists of the injection of a very small amount of diphtheria toxin under the skin and in observing the results. If the child is susceptible to diphtheria, a red wheal will appear at the site of the injection in from twenty-four to forty-eight hours. If not, no reaction occurs. If the Schick test is positive, we are in possession of material which will render the child immune.

Formerly this was rather an elaborate process, consisting of three rather large doses of toxin anti-toxin at intervals of a week or ten days. Now a toxoid is produced that is injected in one small dose and accomplishes the same result.

All this should be done when the child is well, not after exposure to diphtheria. It takes about fourteen days after infection of the toxin before the Schick test becomes negative and able to prevent the disease on exposure. The protection thus produced lasts for quite a long time, maybe for life, but if in doubt another Schick test will show the condition, and more toxoid can be given if necessary.

It is far safer to have your child rendered immune to diphtheria by this method than to trust to luck that he may not contract it, and if he does to recognize it in time for treatment to be effective. We now have had enough experience and are able to control the use of this test and the toxoid that we are fully justified in advising everyone to have his child tested and immunized against diphtheria.

Whenever we reach the point that the great majority of children under five years of age have been given diphtheria preventive treatment the disease will disappear from our country. The preventive treatment is only slightly painful and is almost entirely devoid of danger. Sometimes a child becomes slightly ill after its use, but its action is understood so thoroughly and the methods of prevention and control, so regulated by physicians, that the danger and discomfort are almost nil.

As I have stated before, after the child has developed diphtheria the use of anti-toxin in sufficient dosage, early enough will cure, but the danger of not knowing when the disease starts and obtaining the treatment too late is always very great.

Preventive treatment is the only safe method. When anti-toxin was first introduced, many deaths were attributed to its use. This was not true. The deaths resulted from the toxin produced by the diphtheria bacillus.

Guide to Charm HOT OIL FACIAL GOOD FOR SKIN, EASY TO MAKE

By JACQUELINE HUNT

THE quickest restorative for the dull, thirsty skin is a hot oil facial. These hot oil treatments are fun to take because they are simple and require less time than the usual facial. You can mix your beneficial oils at home, or use simple warmed olive oil or buy a special oil from an exclusive beauty salon.

If possible plan to take the oil facial at night so that the muscles of the face can relax thoroughly and the skin will have a chance to absorb as much of the soothing oil as possible. You can see that your skin is greatly improved after a single treatment.

Try this simple formula if you decide to make your facial oil at home: Mix two drops tincture of benzoin with one tablespoon scented toilet water then add to one ounce each of plain white mineral oil and one ounce olive oil. Put into a small clean jar and set into a pan of hot water to warm.

While the oil is warming, cleanse your skin thoroughly with your favorite method, using either two applications of cleansing cream followed by a cleansing with soap and water. If the latter is used be sure to rinse the skin thoroughly and pat dry. Remember to give your neck an equally thorough cleansing and to tie a band of gauze around your head to keep the oil off your hair.

Use the fingertips to apply the warmed mixture, which incidentally should be shaken vigorously to blend, over the neck, face and forehead. Massage gently lifting the muscles with an upward semi-circular movement as you spread the oil. Next make a mask from a large piece of gauze, cutting two holes for the eyes and one for the nostrils. Saturate the gauze in the warm oil and adjust over the face, pinning to the band of gauze around your head to keep it in place.

Dip two pads of cotton into warm water to which hazel has been added and lay these over your eyes. Relax in a comfortable chair or lie down for ten minutes while your skin relaxes and warms with the oils. Remove the mask and use a cleansing tissue to remove the excess oil.

Next apply a generous film of tissue or lubricating cream. Begin low on the neck and massage firmly upward and then massage the face and forehead gently. The entire facial massage need take but a few minutes time. Do not forget the nose and mouth area. Use the tips of the fingers and work in little circular movements about the nostrils and lips. The nose is always massaged down from the base to the tip, and the forehead from the browline upward to the hair line and from the center out to the temples. Massage very gently around the eyes.

After the massage, remove the excess oil and use some of the same toilet water or use in the oil mixture, to tighten the pores and tone the skin. There is a delightful lilac scented eau-de-Cologne that is grand for this purpose.

Not too many frills, even though you are petite and blonde. I would suggest that you build your spring wardrobe around a smart little-tailored suit with a fairly short, fitted jacket. Select something in a fine, hard-surfaced material or one of the interesting heavy silks.

QUESTION: "I am rather small and plumpish. Can you tell me how to arrange my hair to make me look taller? Any suggestions on clothes would also be gratefully received."—Bobby.

A high side part with your hair swirled backward toward the crown of your head and curled high in the back will tend to increase your apparent height and give you a neater, more sophisticated appearance. Or if you are very young a coiffure of wind-blown curls all over your head will be charming. Wear simple sports clothes and a more tailored coat-dresses for ordinary occasions.

QUESTION: "Can you give me some suggestions for my spring clothes? I am very small and slender with good features and fluffy blonde hair."—Southern Girl.

Not too many frills, even though you are petite and blonde. I would suggest that you build your spring wardrobe around a smart little-tailored suit with a fairly short, fitted jacket. Select something in a fine, hard-surfaced material or one of the interesting heavy silks.

QUESTION: "How long are the bride and groom supposed to remain at the wedding reception?"—M.

ANSWER: They are not expected to remain longer than two hours.

QUESTION: "When a young man says 'thank you' after a dance, what should the girl reply?"—Hortense D.

ANSWER: If words, such as "I enjoyed it too," do not come naturally, a smile or a friendly nod is all that is necessary.

Paris Models Indicate Flowered Prints, Along With Dots, Are In the Ascendancy

SMART, BUT STILL WASHABLE

By IRENE VAIL
New York—Judging from the Paris models now being shown here, flowered prints are in the ascendancy.

Among the flowers may be mentioned large daisies or marigolds, the French call them, carnations, either in miniature or natural sizes, violets, red poppies and cornflowers, strawberries with their flowers. Also, of course, the usual assorted flowers in which many colors appear. For instance, a colorful and beautiful print called Garden of Eden is used in several collections.

From this rather sketchy report of a most important subject you may gather that we are about to burst into print again and be more decorative than ever in our flowered clothes. But don't forget that dots and stripes are also good, in case you are not one to wear flowers. And that there are plenty of solid colors. For instance, motifs done in one shade, usually white, on black or navy ground. It is in this category that chalk white, said to be porcelain clay, figures giving tiny motifs which look as if they were painted, so thick is the color and so dead white. Small stars are used both in the Chanel and the Rochas showings, single lily of the valley heads primly spaced appear at Schiaparelli; and there are dots and crosses.

Sketched today the tunic dress at left combines brown linen for undergarment with a brown eyelet batiste tunic trimmed with green composition buttons and green grain ribbon belt and buckle. A pink linen overblouse frock with neatly tucked panel extending down the center and broadening into tucked pockets at the side. Navy bow, buttons and buckle supply contrasting accent. The fringed edging of this wrap-around dress of colorful red, yellow, white and green checked seersucker is smart. At right, the column are two new hats in linen.

"Paddy" is a white sailor printed with a symmetrical design of triangles in black outline, trimmed with a black crepe band and bow.

For town wear there is a hat of navy blue straw with crown of natural linen dotted with navy and red, and a matching square-ended scarf.

Tasty and Nourishing Dishes for Today Decorative Ingenuity Helps April Fool's Day Parties

By JUDITH WILSON

SURPRISE your April Fool guests with jolly black and golden yellow clown decorations and the nicest food they have ever tasted. Of course, you will want the usual tricks—matches that explode, rubber balloons that pop, and bonbons flavored with quinine, but whatever you do, do not let tomfoolery in any way impair the dignity and deliciousness of your menu.

A flat, black bowl with golden tulips and daffodils make a lovely centerpiece, while gay little clown's should perch at each place.

Break the small ends carefully from eggs and empty out the contents. Let the insides of shell dry or line immediately with yellow cellophane. Use crayons and draw funny clown faces on the shells—each one different—and then fill the empty shells with small black jelly beans or other small candies. Top each egg with a paper clown hat and stand upright, surrounded by ruffles of black and yellow crepe paper.

These make delightful favors for a child's party. Choose large, clean-skinned oranges. On each draw a clown's face with a soft black pencil. Pin on a cap made from an empty ice cream cone that had been covered with orange frosting. Place a snowy popcorn kernel on the tip of each cone. Place each clown on a circle of black paper and surround with a ruffle of snowy popcorn.

To make the orange frosting, blend together three tablespoons butter, two cups confectioner's sugar, two tablespoons lemon juice, two tablespoons orange juice, one teaspoon grated orange rind and enough orange vegetable coloring to give a good color. When smooth and creamy spread on the cones with a knife. The clown favor is illustrated to the right.

Steam a large chicken until very tender, cool, remove the skin carefully and cut into nice slices. Arrange on a deep platter and decorate with pieces of sliced pineapple. Make an aspic by softening two tablespoons of gelatin in one-half cup cold chicken broth and dissolving in three and a half cups of hot, well-seasoned broth. Cool until the aspic begins to thicken, then pour over the sliced chicken. Chill until very firm. Garnish the platter with crisp watercress and wedges of fresh tomatoes. Serve with a rich, well-seasoned mayonnaise.

April Fool Salad
On a lettuce-covered salad plate arrange five orange slices.

MENUS

April Party Refreshments
Sweet Bread Patties
Buttered Green Peas
Fried Potato Balls
Hot Rolls
Jellied Strawberry Sponge
Small Cups Coffee

Cream of Mushroom Soup
Jellied Chicken with Pineapple
Tomato-Watercress Garnish
Orange Cream Sherbet
Assorted Small Cakes
Orange Clown Favors
(For Children)
Tea or Coffee

free from membrane. On each of these slices, place a cooked prune which has been stoned and stuffed with cream or cottage cheese. This is good with a cooked fruit salad dressing, mayonnaise or a sweetened French dressing.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

You and Your Child 'I CAN'T' HABIT DUE TO MOTHER SPOILING CHILD

By JANE HERBERT GOWARD

IN HIGH SCHOOL sixteen-year-old Peggy is self-reliant and a leader, but as soon as she returns, takes of her hat and coat and makes herself at home she is not the same child any more. She immediately lapses into the role of being helpless. And why not? From babyhood her mother has always been at her beck and call. "Mom, where's my sweater?" And mother generally comes bringing the sweater. Small wonder, therefore, that Peggy would rather ask where something is than go and find it herself. Or when asked to fetch something from a specific place, she is apt to look at it with unseeing eyes and report, "Where did you say it was? I can't find it."

Why should she exert herself when it isn't necessary? Take the business of eating eggs. Peggy is annoyed when mother does not open them in the kitchen. It would save them both trouble in the end, if she would.

For Peggy simply cannot break an egg though she has seen her mother do it a hundred times. She has tried, of course. I watched her once. She grasped the egg gingerly between the thumb and forefinger, the other three fingers held together. Then she picked up the knife in her right hand and gave the egg a light tap. Nothing happened to the egg. She began to call for help. "Please take it away from me. It's going to ooze out."

I was hoping her mother would say, "It probably will the way you are holding it. But what if it does? Don't be afraid of it. You have to learn how to break an egg sometime, and you'll never learn if you don't try." But instead Peggy's mother flew to her assistance, rescued the egg and broke it open for her.

If your child has the "I can't" habit, take heed. That's how Peggy's helplessness started. Early in life she discovered that "I can't" brought relief from irksome responsibility. Talk him out of it. Say, "You can if you try," and help him if necessary. Help him discover that he "can" and the satisfaction thereof.

If you use the drip method for making coffee, remember to keep the coffee from cooling off during the dripping process. Place the pot on an asbestos plate over a low flame. Or place it in a pan of very hot water until filtering is complete.

To help prevent the gas range burners from rusting, see that they are thoroughly dried after boiling. Use a tablespoon of soda for each three quarts of water carefully in this hot solution. Then turn them upside down in a heated oven for drying.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

MODERN WOMEN

By MARIAN MAYS MARTIN

A Few Words Disagreeing With Dr. McCracken Of Vassar, Who Says That Ladies Are Extinct

ARE ladies born and not made? Or do you agree with Mrs. Roosevelt, who gives this definition of a lady:

"The essentials are kindness of spirit and the kind of naturalness which is not dependent on birth or circumstances surrounding the person. It is a dependent on inner assurance that if she does the right and kind thing it must be the right way to do it."

Therefore you do not worry about what people may think or whether what you do seems to them right or wrong.

Note that she discounts birth and circumstances. Mrs. Roosevelt, being born to the purple, would not set such great store on something she has always had and therefore naturally never thought much about it.

Do such qualities as she enumerates make a lady, or is there something missing in her definition? There will be many who are not willing to accept her idea, many who will hold that they have known women who possessed all these qualities and still were not ladies.

All this comment on the term was caused by Dr. Henry Nobel McCracken, president of Vassar College, of all places, who made the statement that ladies were extinct. Well, Dr. McCracken is in a position to know.

WHAT he intended to imply is that there were no more ladies of the old school. To that I take exception, for to my personal knowledge there are many of such worthies still in captivity. I grant you that most of them are old, or nearing old age, for it's been a long time since the female started to set great store in being merely a lady. They were far more concerned over being women.

It seems quite possible to be one without being the other. I realize that there are many who will disagree with this statement, but it does not seem there could be any difference of opinion as to which is more important, one's self and to society at large. It is important to be a lady with all the charm and graces the term implies, but it is much more necessary to be a woman. And I believe that progress has been made since the glad day when first a lady woke to the fact that she was something much more important to herself and to the world.

Just what Vassar's president had in mind when he said ladies were extinct it would be interesting to know. He is not greatly impressed by the modern woman, I take it. Perhaps he objects to tobacco—thay smoke at Vassar, you know. Perhaps he objects to cocktail parties and ladies—I beg pardon, women—living alone or having latch keys and jobs. Maybe he objects to women on juries or holding office. Or perhaps he disapproves of women relegating men to the proper proportion in their lives, but even so one cannot quite get at the underlying idea behind this blanket statement.

MAYBE he was thinking in terms of meekness and gentle obedience. Perchance he was missing the abject females who trembled with fear at a frown, if he was missing ringlets and flny waists, rustling petticoats.

The outward semblance of the lady has returned, if one is to believe the evidence of one's eyes and ears. Little feet "like mice at play" are again glimpsed under billowing skirts, and "crowns of glory" are being done in ringlets or braids, and topped by bonnets again.

It all depends on what one's definition of a lady happens to be. As Mrs. Roosevelt says: "Customs and times change and superficialities, but in essentials a lady remains exactly what she was."

No one seems to have mentioned morals, but it's quite possible that those are taken for granted.

Years ago when women first started smoking the pipe a guest asked her hostess whether ladies smoked at her table. "No lady ever has," replied her hostess. Time having compelled this hostess to acquiesce in her guest's cigarettes, even at "hen parties," she may have really changed her personal views on the subject.

Ladies do a great many things today that would not have been tolerated under the old order, but with it all—possibly because they have become women—many seem able to hold their titles. Dr. McCracken to the contrary.

Short Cuts

A cheese and egg omelet is a meal in itself. Use grated American cheese, throwing a liberal sprinkling over the egg as the omelet begins to set. When the egg browns, it is ready for serving. Serve folded over with the cheese inside.

If you use the drip method for making coffee, remember to keep the coffee from cooling off during the dripping process. Place the pot on an asbestos plate over a low flame. Or place it in a pan of very hot water until filtering is complete.

To help prevent the gas range burners from rusting, see that they are thoroughly dried after boiling. Use a tablespoon of soda for each three quarts of water carefully in this hot solution. Then turn them upside down in a heated oven for drying.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

Put two pairs sweetbreads in cold water to soak, then drain and cook in salted water for twenty minutes. Plunge into ice water to chill thoroughly, then trim off all of the excess fat and membranes. Cut into small pieces. Fry one cup of sliced mushrooms in butter until lightly browned. Blanch one-half cup almonds and cut into fine shivers. Make a sauce from three tablespoons each of butter and flour and one cup each of cream and milk. Cook until thickened and season well with salt and pepper. Add the sweetbreads, mushrooms and almonds and serve in puff pastry shells. This will make six to eight servings.

RICHMOND RECORD-HERALD
Published Every Morning Except Mondays and the Days Following Holidays by the Record-Herald Printing and Publishing Co.
1 Macdonald Avenue Telephone Richmond 70 and 71
E. MILNES President and Manager
ROVER E. MILNES Business Manager
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY OF RICHMOND
SUBSCRIPTION RATES
1 MONTH—By Carrier.....$5.00
1 YEAR.....$50.00
Entered at The Postoffice at Richmond, California
As Second Class Matter
SATURDAY MORNING, MAY 4, 1935.

CLASSIFIED SECTION

Two-Cents Per Word Per Day—Minimum Charge, 35c

Real Estate For Sale
FOR SALE—GET THIS! A 5 1/2 room house, like new, garage, large lot, central heating, and more. Good neighborhood. South Richmond. Only $1850. $500 down, $20 a month. North Berkeley Realty Company, 1507 Solano Avenue, Phone Berkeley 5116.

BARGAINS IN LOTS—Lot 10 block 70. Amended map City of Richmond 289. Lot 2 block 8 Richmond Tract 3796. Lot 2 block 8. Michell-Macdonald Ave. City Center $1500. Lot 11 and 12 Wall's Addition to Richmond $1500. Lot 3 Block C City of Pullman $200. For quick sale, would consider part cash and part improved property in San Francisco. Address G. Shraga, 780 Howard Street, San Francisco, 11-24-17.

FOR SALE—Bargain at $5100 cash 8 room house at 111 Richmond. Lot 10 block 70. Fruit trees, fish pond, flowers, wonderful view. Phone owner after 4 P.M. Richmond 2090. 11-27-17.

BUSINESS LOT on Washington Avenue. It is assessed by the City of Richmond at $230. Willing to sell or trade for that valuation. Address R. M. case Record-Herald 11.

FOR SALE—Two lots good location, street work, sidewalk and sewerage all paid for. Must make a sacrifice of the property. Will sell for $2000. 35th Street between Wall and Cutting. For $25 cash. Address Mrs. M. Lavery, 84 Angelica Street, San Francisco, Cal. 12-2-17.

FOR RENT—Furnished 3 room apartment. Lights, water, garage. $12.00. 614A-17th 2-3-17.

FOR RENT—Five room house. In first class condition; cement basement; garage. Inquire at 17 Montana Avenue.

MISCELLANEOUS
FOR SALE—Singer Sewing Machine $15.00. White Sewing Machine $5.00. Vacuum Cleaner $9.00. We also rent and repair. Baldwin, 608 Macdonald Ave. 12-2-17.

FOR SALE—Three second hand cars of different sizes, good condition, also one Burroughs adding machine, all at bargain prices. Call at 720 Macdonald Avenue. 12-20-17.

NRA Defended In High Courts By Donald Richberg

WASHINGTON, May 3.—The NRA's chief executive, Donald Richberg, defended validity of the Recovery Act before the Supreme Court today.

The courtroom was as tense as it was when the famous gold cases were pending.

On a bench to the side sat A. J. Schechter, principal defendant in the case. To his organization this outcome involves fines of only a few thousand dollars, but the decision of the court as to whether these fines must be paid personally will carry with it the fate of major aspects of the entire NRA.

HAY PRICE TRIPLES
BANNOCK, O.—UP—Last year's drought is denting the budget of the Belmont County infirmary. Because of the demand for hay due to the western shortage, the institution is having to pay from $18 to $22 a ton, the same price that prevailed in 1920, in contrast with from $7 to $8 a year ago.

AGENTS DYNAMITED STILL
HAMMONTON, N. J.—UP—Federal and state agents accepted an invitation to raid a still near here and expressed their thanks with a charge of dynamite. A sign at the plant read: "Here lies Old Ironsides. Come on, fellows, and get it."

GROCER DIXER PATRONS
QUINCY, ILL.—UP—Not a single customer left him to trade with some other company during the depression, so William M. Lemon, independent grocer, recently gave a dinner and dance for his 650 dependable patrons.

Cards Polo Team Winner From USC

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, May 3.—UP—Stanford's hard-riding polo four today defeated the University of Southern California's quartet, 7-4, in their intercollegiate match here.

A fine goal rally in the fifth quarter after the southerners had taken an early lead, put the Cardinals out in front and gave them the margin they held to the final whistle.

Stanford scored four times, with Patterson connecting for two goals and Beale one. Beckley scored twice for U. S. C. with Shaw and Stiers scoring once each. Benchmark for Stanford and Wheeler for U. S. C. played brilliant defensive games.

CHILDREN WERE ANGLERS
LINCOLN, Neb.—UP—More than 1,000 children participated in Lincoln annual "Kids" fishing contest, held in a park here. Fish were furnished by the State Game Commission.

Two Seamen Are Badly Beaten In Oil Strike Row

PORTLAND, Ore., May 3.—Two seamen from the Richmond oil tanker Larry Doherty were beaten and robbed and a third escaped after the trio had been held captive for two hours last night in a waterfront strike.

Officers immediately rounded up suspects on the waterfront and shortly afterward three members of the International Seamen's Union, Clarence Grady, James H. Ferrell and Morris Weisberger, were picked out of a lineup as assailants of the three victims.

Barbara Visits 5 And 10 Store On Trip To Reno

RENO, Nev., May 3.—Princess Barbara Button Milnes, daughter of the late Senator Milnes, visited Reno's "five and ten-cent store" today, but she didn't buy anything.

Accompanied by a woman companion, the attractively gowned princess spent much of the afternoon "window shopping" and walking about the city's business district.

A crowd began to gather and she and her companion hurriedly walked away.

HUGE EGG LAID IN TEXAS
BORGER, Tex.—UP—A huge egg, weighing seven and one-half ounces and perfectly formed was laid by one of Joe Cui's White Minors here. The egg is eight and one-half inches in circumference one way and seven and five-eighths the other.

Age and Meeting Notices
RIGHTS OF PYTHIAS—Richmond Lodge, No. 13, meets every Wednesday night at K. of P. Hall, Fifth St. near Macdonald. Members always welcome.
W. C. RICHARDS, C. C.
F. G. BLACKHART, R. R. S.

WINES AND LIQUORS
FOR SALE—Wines from the barrel. Claret, 60¢; burgundy, 70¢ gal. Southerner 90¢ gal. Any amount from 10¢ up. Bring your own container. Free delivery. Telephone Richmond 341.
LEE'S LIQUOR STORE
2209 Macdonald Avenue
11-27-17.

Wanted.
WANTED—Will exchange painting (interior) for size 37 suit for 100. 176-178 15th. Inquire Record-Herald. 3-19-35.

RICHMOND AERIE NO. 354
O. E. meets every Thursday 8 p. m. in Brotherhood Hall, 17 Fifth St. A. L. Anfahol, worthy President, R. F. D. Box 100, Richmond, Phone Richmond 1086. W. McChristian, Sec., Phone 1086. Dr. J. W. Bumgarner, Phys., 900 Macdonald Ave. Phone 78-W—house 76-R.

RYAN Funeral Home
A Service of Distinction
Phone Day or Night
Richmond 1-2-3-7
Macdonald Ave. at 84th
LADY ATTENDANT

CLEANERS & DYERS
WANNING—pressing mendings or rewashing. All work guaranteed. Phone Richmond 452. MAYER'S AMERICAN CLEANING WORKS, 1167 Macdonald Avenue.

NOTICE OF SALE TO FORECLOSE LIEN
Notice is hereby given to O. M. Campbell, John Doe, Jane Doe and all persons claiming any interest in the following described property that the undersigned will sell at public auction for cash, lawful money to the highest bidder on Saturday May 11th, 1935, at 11 o'clock A. M. one City and County of Richmond, California, No. 121993 to satisfy his claim of lien for storage in the amount of $150. Sale will take place at 112 Washington Avenue, Richmond, California. ED McDUFE, lien claimant. Publish May 2-10-17 daily.

FOR RENT—Furnished 3 room apartment. Lights, water, garage. $12.00. 614A-17th 2-3-17.

FOR RENT—Five room house. In first class condition; cement basement; garage. Inquire at 17 Montana Avenue.

MISCELLANEOUS
FOR SALE—Singer Sewing Machine $15.00. White Sewing Machine $5.00. Vacuum Cleaner $9.00. We also rent and repair. Baldwin, 608 Macdonald Ave. 12-2-17.

FOR SALE—Three second hand cars of different sizes, good condition, also one Burroughs adding machine, all at bargain prices. Call at 720 Macdonald Avenue. 12-20-17.

C. O. D. Cleaners
Established 1909
SUITS O'COATS
PLAIN DRESSES 75c
Cash and Carry
2409 Macdonald Phone 689

1935 Dodge
Now On Display
GEO. V. ARTH & Son
Dodge and Plymouth Dealers
255-259 16th St. Rich. 528

MURINE FOR YOUR EYES
QUICKLY RELIEVES TIRED REDDENED EYES
RECOMMENDED FOR 40 YEARS

IT'S SIMPLY INEXCUSABLE
You cannot expect to make friends socially or in business if you have halitosis (bad breath). Since you cannot detect it yourself, the one way of making sure you do not offend is to gargle often with Listerine. It instantly destroys odors, improves mouth hygiene and checks infection. Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, St. Louis, Missouri.

LISTERINE ends halitosis
Kills 200,000,000 germs

Crossword Puzzle
By LARS MORRIS
ANSWER TO PREVIOUS PUZZLE

1-Down: 1. Girth, 2. Place of origin, 3. Accented, 4. 1000, 5. 1000, 6. 1000, 7. 1000, 8. 1000, 9. 1000, 10. 1000, 11. 1000, 12. 1000, 13. 1000, 14. 1000, 15. 1000, 16. 1000, 17. 1000, 18. 1000, 19. 1000, 20. 1000, 21. 1000, 22. 1000, 23. 1000, 24. 1000, 25. 1000, 26. 1000, 27. 1000, 28. 1000, 29. 1000, 30. 1000, 31. 1000, 32. 1000, 33. 1000, 34. 1000, 35. 1000, 36. 1000, 37. 1000, 38. 1000, 39. 1000, 40. 1000, 41. 1000, 42. 1000, 43. 1000, 44. 1000, 45. 1000, 46. 1000, 47. 1000, 48. 1000, 49. 1000, 50. 1000, 51. 1000, 52. 1000, 53. 1000, 54. 1000, 55. 1000, 56. 1000, 57. 1000, 58. 1000, 59. 1000, 60. 1000, 61. 1000, 62. 1000, 63. 1000, 64. 1000, 65. 1000, 66. 1000, 67. 1000, 68. 1000, 69. 1000, 70. 1000, 71. 1000, 72. 1000, 73. 1000, 74. 1000, 75. 1000, 76. 1000, 77. 1000, 78. 1000, 79. 1000, 80. 1000, 81. 1000, 82. 1000, 83. 1000, 84. 1000, 85. 1000, 86. 1000, 87. 1000, 88. 1000, 89. 1000, 90. 1000, 91. 1000, 92. 1000, 93. 1000, 94. 1000, 95. 1000, 96. 1000, 97. 1000, 98. 1000, 99. 1000, 100. 1000.

WHERE IS THE MYSTERY PLANE? AND WHERE IS BUZZ?

WAS DOING—OR DID I SEE ANOTHER PLANE?

LOOK!

WINDY IS GOING TO CORNER HIM SOMEWHERE!

IT'S WINDY AT AFTER BUZZ!

GO AFTER HIM, WINDY! THIS LOOKS LIKE A REAL FIGHT!

By Brinkerhoff

MARY MIXUP

HEY! WHAT'S GOING ON OUT HERE? WHAT'S ALL THIS RACKET? -- STOP THAT NOISE!

CLUMP

WHY! IT'S SPUNKY AND ANOTHER MAN FIGHTING! HEY! YOU TWO QUIT THROWING EACH OTHER AROUND!

MOM! COME QUICK! SPUNKY IS FIGHTING AGAIN! HE AND ANOTHER MAN HAVE ALMOST RIPPED THE CLOTHES OFF EACH OTHER!

By Brinkerhoff

FRITZI RITZ

I'M SORRY I HAD TO SPANK YOU NANCY—BUT YOU BROKE MY MOST EXPENSIVE VASE!

BOO BAW WOW

SOME DAY AUNT FRITZI WILL BE SORRY SHE TREATED ME LIKE THIS!

I WONDER IF SHE'D MISS ME IF I WASN'T HERE??

WHAT IS THIS?? IT LOOKS LIKE THE LITTLE RASCAL IS RUNNING AWAY FROM HOME

By Ernie Bushmiller

BOBBY DOT DOPE

THE STAGE MANAGER TOLD ME TO PRACTICE PUTTING ON MY MAKE-UP AT HOME!

YES, SENATOR, I HAVE TWO BOYS BUT THE OLDEST ONE IS THE VERY IMAGE OF ME!

DO TELL

HELLO, FATHER!

By JOHN DEVLIN

Things That Never Happen

IF YOUR SLEEPY GO ON INTO MY OFFICE AND GO TO SLEEP ON THE COUCH—

By Brinkerhoff

HOTEL STANFORD
SAN FRANCISCO
200 Modern Fireproof Rooms
Rates $1 to $3 Daily
FREE GARAGE KEARNY ST at BUSH Coffee Shop

RED LEADERS ARE BEATEN, THROWN OUT

GALLUP, N. M., May 3. UP—Two bloodstained, exhausted Communist leaders, safe after a brutal beating at the hands of masked kidnapers, returned tonight to Gallup, scene of their abduction last night.

When they arrived there, Leamon telephoned Governor Angley, and asked protection for the return to Gallup. Tingley acceded to the request at once.

They were David Levinson, famous attorney for the International Labor Defense, and Robert Minor, nationally known Communist writer and cartoonist.

GUARDED BY POLICE

Guarded by an escort of four state police officers, and themselves armed with revolvers provided them by the police, they entered Gallup in a motor car at 3:50 P.M., and were taken at once to St. Mary's hospital for treatment of their injuries.

The two had reached the government Indian hospital in the little settlement of Tohatchi, N. M., 21 miles from here, at 1 P. M. today in the dilapidated truck of a Navajo Indian.

HOURS OF SUFFERING

Behind them was nearly 15 hours of suffering and terror, during which their abductors beat them cruelly and flung them, with tracks tied over their heads from a car on a desert roadway, to wander half-dazed and completely lost, throughout a night of blustery rain and pitch dark.

Threatened with death, both men were threatened with death should they return to Gallup, and they came back here on a desert highway, after Governor Clyde Tingley had ordered the escort of state police and had promised them protection throughout their stay here.

The two men came here yesterday to prepare for the defense of 10 men charged with murder in connection with the slaying of Sheriff M. R. Carmichael in an unemployed riot in this strife torn mining town on April 4.

They were kidnaped at 10:30 P. M., last night as they sat in a parked car discussing the case with Mrs. Julia Bartol, wife of Joe Bartol, one of the defendants in the case.

WOUNDS SUPERFICIAL

D. L. M. Keene examined them at the hospital at Tohatchi, and said their wounds, while painful, were superficial. Both, he said, showed evidence of having undergone a terrific beating, apparently with blackjacks or blunt weapons of some sort.

MUSIC STUDIO

A limited number of pupils in saxophone or clarinet instruction, or musical coaching will be accepted, F. C. Bibbins, 830 Thirty-fifth street, Telephone Rich. 3095W 4-9 if

300 Families Off To Alaska

THREE HUNDRED families from a dust scourged section of the Middle West were on the Pacific Ocean today en route to Alaska where they will settle on the Government's first colonization scheme in Matanuska Valley. Above, right: Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Leander and baby. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Moos and baby. At left: One of the modern pioneers with all his worldly possessions en route to the boat that will bear him to the promised land.

Trackmen-Watch Them Go

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY track team doing road work as it got into practice for the Penn Relays at Philadelphia, to compete among 3,000 athletes from colleges and universities throughout the country. At left is Sam Maniac, and at right Ben Johnson, the varsity speed twins. Between them, left to right, are Lattimer, Potter and Axelrod.

One Man Cars Will Contest At San Jose

SAN JOSE, May 3.—UP—Featuring the largest aggregation of one-man racing cars ever assembled at the San Jose speedway, outstanding speed drivers of the Pacific Coast will compete in a special program here May 12. It was announced today.

With eight events scheduled for the tiny, high-powered cars, track officials look forward to one of the fastest meets of the year on the five-eighths mile dirt track.

Bandits Secure $5000 In Loot From Neb. Bank

BARTLEY, Neb., May 3.—UP—Enforcing their commands with a submachine gun, two bandits looted the Bartley State Bank of $5000 late today and escaped.

The gunmen seized every coin and bill in the institution, scooping even the pennies into a small sack. Under the muzzle of the threatening gun cashier A. B. Woods and three other employees walked into the emptied vault and were locked in.

The captives were released a half an hour later by the operation of a time lock. Bartley is in southwest Nebraska.

NEW TODAY

FOR RENT—Sunny front room in private family. Garage. Board if desired. Reasonable. Phone 816W 2-1-6T.

Grand Opening of Sunset Tavern

2227 Macdonald Avenue
TODAY

The New Management Cordially Invites You To Enjoy Our Hospitality On

Opening Day

And Inspect Our New Restaurant
Re-Modeled Quarters
Up-To-Date Facilities

For Serving You With Appetizing Food
Beer and Wines
Bar Confectionery
Cigars, Cigarettes and Tobacco

COME AND GET ACQUAINTED
Today Is The Day

M. A. Joyce, Proprietor
2227 Macdonald Avenue

THOUSANDS ARE JOINING WALK-OUT

PORTLAND, Ore., May 3.—UP—Spreading lumber and marine strikes and gunfire in the inter-union dispute of sawmill workers and teamsters heightened industrial tension in the Pacific Northwest tonight.

STRIKE SPREADS

The lumber mill and camp strike spread to eight more operations, three in Oregon and five in Washington, bringing to more than 5,000 the men on strike.

MILLS ARE CLOSING

The eastern and western lumber companies, Portland, the Cross-Western Lumber Company, Wenatchee, and the Big Creek Timber Company, Big Creek, closed in Oregon when more than 700 members of the sawmill and timber workers union struck.

The men demanded 75 cents an hour, closed shop, sick leave and vacations with pay and a 30-hour week. Operators refused to consider the demands.

Four Olympia, Wash., mills closed when 300 workers struck. Union leaders said 1,000 more men in the area would go out and other mills would not reopen tomorrow. They charged that mill owners were working men night and day to stock up before the threatened general lumber strike, set for next Monday.

Port of Olympia longshoremen refused to load lumber from the closed mills.

Two hundred of the 400 employees of the Carlisle Lumber Company, Centralia, Wash., struck and the plant was closed.

Shingle mill workers already had closed Bellingham, Wash., mills. Vernonia, Ore., logging camps and the Carl & Wilson mills at Portland and Prescott, Ore.

MANY MORE THREATENED

The A. F. of L. union's greatest test of strength will come next Monday when many more strikes have been threatened. Union operators meet union demands, or at least offer to discuss them, or to submit to the arbitration of the Federal Mediation Board.

Waterfront troubles spread at Seattle when the crew of 40 of the steamer Lena Luckenbach left the ship and established a picket line. Strikers demanded the west coast general wage scale.

FICKET WOUNDED

Silver Vetro, picketing union teamster, was wounded in the leg at Seattle in another flareup of the 30-year old dispute between the teamsters and the brewery workers, both A. F. of L. unions, over jurisdiction.

Vetro was shot by a guard when 10 teamsters, picketing the Northwest Brewery, attempted to halt a truckload of beer driven by a brewery workers union man, and fought a hand-to-hand battle with the armed convoy. H. E. Ehlers was arrested by police who quelled the disorder, and charged with shooting Vetro.

up the Troy combination of Draper, Boone and Fitch, and either Nimmo in the mile and half mile or Devlin in the two mile may pull through with unexpected points in the Stanford column.

Interest in the pole vault centers around the marks which will be made rather than the place winners, with the southerners conceding a clean sweep for all three places.

Both Meadows and Setton of U. S. C. has climbed to 14 feet in the vault, while Hooker has done 13 feet 9 inches. Under ideal conditions in the Stanford pit, it is expected at least one of the trio may reach near-record heights.

R. L. "Dink" Templeton, Stanford coach, has not announced whether Chuck Nimmo will run the mile in addition to the 880, leaving the four lap run an open fight for first between Dixon of Stanford and Benavidez, Zamperini and Nelson of the Trojans.

The quarter mile championship of the coast will be at stake in the 448 as Al Blackman of Stanford and Johnny McCarthy, flashy USC runner, battle for first place on the fast Stanford track.

Blackman, generally considered a faster runner than the heavy southerner, will be a favorite to win if the half come off the time turn Benavidez forms. McCarthy, however, who almost always runs a wide-open first furlong, is counted on by USC supporters to build up a strong enough lead to hold off Blackman's stretch challenge.

Sammy Klonstock, slim Cardinal runner, is expected by Stanford enthusiasts to accomplish Saturday what he has failed to do so far this season—run to form in both hurdle races.

Klonstock, although he has run fast in each race, as the Trojan runners, has been unable to hit his stride in both lows and highs against face competition this year.

Lives In Shadow

MARY ADELINE PRENTICE, 27, granddaughter of John D. Rockefeller, is just another nurse to the stream of patients in a New York doctor's office. Striving to hide her identity she complains she has always lived in the shadow of a great name and desires to be left alone to make her own way.

U. S. Future Up To People Says Rotary Speaker

Samuel J. Hume, well-known Berkeley orator, was speaker of the day yesterday when the Richmond Rotary Club held its meeting. Hume sketched the history of the world and of the United States in its social, economic and political structure, declaring that it is up to the American people to decide whether they want the present liberty and the rewards of their own efforts or to submit to the tyrannies of either fascism or communism.

He deplored the apathy with which American business men greet the political question of the day and the domination that they take from third rate brains posing as political leaders and statesmen. Clarence J. Bullwinkle of the Ford Motor company was chairman of the day.

READ THE LATEST WORLD NEWS IN THE RECORD-HERALD

30,000 Of General Motor Workers Out

DETROIT, May 3.—UP—More than 30,000 General Motors workers in 15 Chevrolet parts and assembly plants throughout the country, remained idle tonight as Federal mediators attempted to settle the Toledo Chevrolet walkout, cause of the general shut down.

Only two Chevrolet assembly plants in the nation, outside of Michigan, were open. Those were at Oakland, Calif., with 1000 workers and at Tarrytown, N. Y., where 4200 are employed in Fisher and Chevrolet plants.

Needy Invasion Of State Is Scored

SACRAMENTO, May 3.—"Some action" to halt the influx of destitute families from the drought-stricken plains States into California was urged by T. A. Beardon, State Director of Industrial Relations, in a report to Governor Merriam today.

Beardon reported that "approximately 100 families a day" are coming into California.

RAY CHARGED WITH BEING PHILANDERER

HOLLYWOOD, May 3.—UP—Charles Ray, one-time bashful bumptin' of silent pictures, who climbed to film fame as a tongue-tied country boy, was neither bashful nor tongue-tied around women, his wife, Clara, Ray, testified today in a divorce hearing.

Superior Judge Parker Wood gave her the divorce.

Ray, who paralyzed matinee-goers of the Theda Bara era with portrayals of a wistful, handkerchief-squeezing country lad in the tear-jerkers of 20 years ago, as pictured by Mrs. Ray as a "philanderer."

She said he received billets-doux and tokens of affection from women long after his film fame had faded and his fan mail was reduced to personal notes.

Mrs. Ray offered several of these letters in evidence. One, addressed to "Charles E. E." was written in French, Mrs. Ray, attractive, brunette with close cropped black hair, translated for Judge Wood's benefit. It said: "I love you."

She said notes written by a certain "Beverly"—whose last name she did not know—were "most repugnant" to her. These notes had such lines as "well, Dodo, dear, I must leave you now." And "Why can't I have my little boy and be done with it all?"

Although he filed an answer, denying he was a philanderer, and charging Mrs. Ray with flirting with other men, he did not appear to fight the suit in court.

Five Hundred Are Killed In Quakes

ISTANBUL, May 3.—A fresh series of earthquakes sent inhabitants of the Kars district on the Turco-Russian frontier fleeing in terror today and brought the dead in the two-day disturbances to 500.

More than 1,300 homes were reported laid waste, and 1,200 persons injured.

DION SPECIAL

Now is the time to get modern electric appliances.

A coffee maker, an iron, a grill, a waffle iron and a stove, each at

$3.95

Economy Electric Co.
NEVIN AT SIXTH

Job Printing!

THAT DOES THE JOB-RIGHT

You know what you want to say and how to say it, but if your message is not presented right it often falls below the mark. Our job printing department is at your service. Our printing experts know how to put power and push behind your message. When we produce your job you may feel confident that it is rightly done.

RECORD-HERALD

Telephones: Rich. 70 and 71

Rexall

ORIGINAL RADIO

1¢

ONE CENT SALE

Listen to the RADIO

LAST DAY

LA MOINE DRUG CO.

Rexall Stores
Sixth & Macdonald Ninth & Macdonald

NO MIDDLEMAN IN THE REXALL PLAN YOU GET THE SAVINGS

FOR SALE

SOUTHERN CLUB

430 San Pablo Ave.
El Cerrito